THE KING-TROTTER WEDDING.

Marriage of Popular Couple Last Week at Spring Place, Ga.

Spring Place, Ga., June 20.—Special: A pretty wedding was solemnized here at the home of Col. and Mrs. C. N. King, yesterday, when Prof. John Trotter lead to Hymen's altar, as his bride, Miss Mamie King. The marriage took place on the front porch, beneath an archway of green, from which hung the usual wedding bell, and was witnessed by a number of friends. The ceremony was beautifully and impressively performed by Rev. Joe Genthner, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

The color scheme of green and white was minutely carried out in a profusion of ivy, magnolia, sweet peas and ferns. Miss King was preceded by her two attendants, the groom's sister, Miss Nannie Trotter, and her brother, Perry King. Miss Trotter wore a dress of blue voile with lace trimmings, carrying sweet peas and ferns. The bride never looked lovelier than when, robed in her handsome dress of white silk marquisette, with lace net, pearl and satin trimmings, and carrying a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and ferns, leaning on the arm of the groom, at the sacred altar they took the vows that merged two lives into one.

Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations were over, punch was served by Misses Hattie Shelor, Aloe King and Helen Thompson. This was followed by an elaborate reception and dinner, tendered by Col. and Mrs. King to their out-of-town friends, the bridal party proper and a few other intimate friends and relatives.

The bride and groom then left for Dalton, followed by a host of friends, amid a shower of rice. There they boarded the train for an extensive bridal tour, after which they will be at home to their friends in Chattanooga.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Col. and Mrs. C. N. King and a young lady of winning and attractive personality, loved and admired by all who know her.

The groom is a man of many sterling qualities and is a popular business man in Chattanooga.

The number and beauty of the presents silently speak of the popularity of Mr. and Mrs. Trotter.

The out-of-town guests were: Miss Nannie Trotter, Jefferson City, Tenn.; Rev. Joe Genthner, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Albert Thompson and Miss Helen Thompson, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Addie Frazier, La Grange, Ga.; Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Thode, Miss Hattie Shelor and T. B. Shelor, Walhalla.

House Enjoys Laughing Over Teddy.

Washington, June 24.—For forty minutes to-day the house enjoyed itself over the situation in which the Republican party finds itself because of the Chicago convention's results.

Representative Philip Campbell, of Kansas, started it by having read a letter written by former President Roosevelt, in 1908, extolling the virtues of President Taft, then a candidate.

Republican applause greeted the phrases containing praise for President Taft. Democrats laughed uproariously. When the reading was finished, Representative Hoffman, of Alabama, had read one of the Chicago statements by Col. Roosevelt. The Democrats had a lot of fun by applauding loudly at the numerous references to "fraud" and "rascality."

THEO. GRASS THE NEW PLUM.

"Thou Shalt Not Steal" to Be the New Watchword.

Chicago, June 22.—Former President Theodore Roosevelt was nominated for President on an independent ticket to-night in the dying hours of the Republican National Convention, in which he had met defeat, amidst the wildest enthusiasm.

The followers of Col. Roosevelt gathered in Orchestra Hall, less than a mile from the Coliseum, and pledged their support to the former president.

In accepting the nomination Col. Roosevelt appealed to the people of all sections, regardless of party affiliations, to stand with the founders of the new party, one of whose cardinal principles, he said, was to be "Thou shalt not steal."

The informal nomination of Col. Roosevelt was said to be chiefly for the purpose of effecting a temporary organization. Beginning to-morrow, when a call is to be issued for a State Convention in Illinois the work of organization will be pushed forward rapidly, State by State.

At a later time, probably early in August, it is intended that a National Convention shall be held.

Colonel May Step Aside.

Col. Roosevelt, in accepting the nomination to-night, said he did so understanding that he would willingly step aside if it should be the desire of the new party, when organized, to select another standard bearer.

The speech nominating Col. Roosevelt was made by Comptroller Wm. A. Pendergast, of New York, who was to have presented the colonel's name to the convention. Dean Wm. Draper Lewis, of the University of Pennsylvania Law School, who was to make one of the seconding speeches, delivered to-night the address which he had prepared for the Republican Convention.

Representatives of 22 States composed the notification committee, which informed Col. Roosevelt of his nomination, and in a sense stood as sponsors for the movement.

Stinging Resolutions.

When the doors were opened the surging crowd, held in check by the police, were ushered first to the balcony and galleries. These were quickly filled and the police had difficulty in handling the throng. The crowd extended for blocks in a line four deep.

This resolution was adopted:

"We, delegates and alternates to the Republican National Convention, representing a clear majority of the voters of the Republican party of the nation, and representing a clear majority of the delegates and alternates legally elected to the convention, in meeting assembled, make the following declaration:

"We were delegated by a majority of the Republican voters of our respective districts and States to nominate Theodore Roosevelt in the Republican National Convention as the candidate of our party for President and thereby carry out the will of the voters as expressed at the primaries. We have earnestly and conscientiously striven to execute the commission trusted to us by the party voters.

"For five days we have been denied justice in the National Convention. This result has been accomplished by the action of the now defunct national committee in placing upon the preliminary roll of the convention, and thereby seating upon the floor of the convention, a sufficient number of fraudulently elected delegates to control the proceedings of the convention. These fraudulent delegates, once seated, have by concerted action with one another, put themselves upon the permanent roll, where they constitute an influence sufficient to control the convention and defeat the will of the party as expressed at the primaries.

"We have exhausted every known means to head off this conspiracy and to prevent this fraud upon the popular will, but without success. "We were sent to this convention bearing the most specific instructions to place Theodore Roosevelt in nomination as the candidate of our party for President, and we, therefore, deem it to be our duty to carry out those instructions in the only practical and feasible way remaining open to us.

"Therefore, be it resolved, That we, representing the majority of the voters of the Republican party, and of the delegates and alternates legally elected to the National Republican Convention, in compliance with our instruction from the party voters, hereby nominate Theodore Roosevelt as the candidate of our party for the office of President of the United States; and we call upon him to accept such nomination in compliance with the will of the party voters.

"And, be it further resolved, That a committee be authorized by the chair, to forthwith notify Col. Roosevelt of the action here taken and request him to appear before us in this hall as soon as convenient."

Col. Roosevelt appeared on the stage at the mass meeting and the crowd went wild with enthusiasm. Men flung their hats in the air and women tossed their gloves and fans about.

Cheering was deafening and it was some time before order was restored.

Party's Destruction Inevitable.

Chicago, June 22.—Timothy Woodruff to-night announced his resignation as leader of the Republican organization in Brooklyn. In his announcement Mr. Woodruff says in part:

"The utterly ruthless subversion of the popular will expressed by our fellow Republicans of the great Republican States, by the National Committee, the committee on credentials, and finally by this fraudulently constituted convention, whereby the destruction of the Republican party is, in my political judgment, inevitable, as I told my fellow-Brooklyn delegates when they arrived here after I have carefully informed myself regarding the situation, compels me to take this course."

NEGRESS KILLS WHITE LADY.

Mrs. R. E. Jordan, of Pinehurst, Ga.,
Stabbed to Death.

Vienna, Ga., June 24.—Mrs. R. E. Jordan, who lives near Pinehurst, this county, was stabbed and almost instantly killed this afternoon by Annie Barksdale, a negro woman in her employ.

Immediately after the murder, Sheriff Bennett started in an automobile for Hawkinsville with the negress. He is being followed by several automobiles loaded with neighbors of the Jordan family, who will lynch the negress if she is caught.

The Jordans are among the best-known and most highly respected citizens of this section. They own a large plantation, and employ many negroes.

This afternoon Mrs. Jordan remonstrated with the negro woman regarding the manner in which some work about the house had been done. Without a second's warning, the negress grabbed a knife, and, in addition to stabbing her several times in the back, cut a deep gash across the throat, which alone would have caused instant death.

Mrs. Jordan was Miss Jennie Barlow before her marriage, and came from one of the best-connected families in this section.

There is great excitement at Pinehurst.

Each age of our lives has its joys. Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strengthen the digestion and keep the bowels regular. These tablets are mild and gentle in their action and especially suitable for people of middle age and older. For sale by all dealers.

Seven Shot in Strike Riot.

Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., June 24.—Seven persons, including a woman and small boy, were shot this afternoon in a clash between strikers and special deputies guarding the National Conduit and Cable Company's works, where a strike has been in progress for some time. The woman was probably mortally wounded and all the others are in a serious condition. So far as could be learned, the shots were fired by the guards and not returned by the strikers. The boy injured was playing in the street.

Secretary Meyer Has Fever.

Washington, June 23.—Secretary Meyer, who left Washington a week ago for his home at Hamilton, Mass., has developed typhoid fever. A message to that effect was received to-day at the Navy Department. When the secretary left it was said he was suffering from a stomach trouble.

Wife Tried to Save Gumb.

Charleston, June 23.—Details reached this city to-day of the drowning last night in the Sullivan's Island surf of Sergeant Harry W. Gumb, of Lowell, Mass. Gumb was caught in a whirlpool in the rocks. His young wife, who was watching nearby with her little child, started into the water to rescue him, but could do nothing. His body will be shipped home. Gumb was a member of the hospital corps at the Port Moultrie army post.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by all dealers.

POLITICAL.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been informed that the report is being circulated in the Third Congressional District by James Baldwin, one of the defendants in the Townville murder case, and also by his father, that I attempted to hire him (James Baldwin) to swear against the other three defendants. I wish to state to the public that if either James Baldwin, his father, or any other man is circulating any such report, that it is a malicious lie. I also brand any other report as to any misconduct on my part in said case, or any other case, as a malicious lie. It is merely one of the dirty campaign lies usually sprung on a candidate to injure him.

Any one disagreeing with the above can find me at any time in my law office on the public square at Walhalla, South Carolina.

Robbed in Pullman Berth.

Washington, June 23.—P. H. Gadsden, of Charleston, reported to the police to-day that he had been robbed of $125 in cash and a gold watch valued at $125 while he was asleep in his berth on a Pullman between Philadelphia and Washington this morning. Mr. Gadsden says that he had left the money in his trouser's pocket and the watch in a vest pocket. His clothes were on the berth hook when he awoke, but the money and watch were gone.

COMMITTEE CHOOSES PARKER.

Bryan Shows Fight for Chairmanship
—Preliminary Notes.

Baltimore, June 24.—A conference held this afternoon between William Jennings Bryan, Judge Alton B. Parker, National Chairman Mack and Vice Chairman Hall, to effect a compromise on the question of temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention, failed.

Mr. Bryan announced that he had not changed his mind. Vice Chairman Hall indicated that Judge Parker would be named and that the fight against him would be carried on from the floor by Mr. Bryan.

Sub-Committee's Action Upheld.

Baltimore, June 24.—Former Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, was chosen as the candidate for temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention by the National Committee to-night. Parker received 31 votes; Senator-elect Ollie James, of Kentucky, 20; Senator O'Gorman, of New York, 2.

W. J. B. Has Platform in Pocket.

If Mr. Bryan should not be temporary chairman of the Democratic Convention, he probably will be chairman of the committee on resolutions. He will be the representative of his State on that committee and his position in the party is such that the place will be conceded to him. The general opinion is that he will prepare the greater part of the platform, and many think he now has much of it written, but he is reticent on the subject.

Delegates were too much occupied to-day with the temporary chairmanship to give much close attention to resolutions, but insofar as there was expression on the subject, it indicated a harmonious condition. Representatives of some Eastern States express apprehension that there may be an effort to force approval of the initiative, referendum and recall. If there is it will be opposed. Mr. Bryan has, however, indicated the opinion that these pertain only to State administration, and it is not believed that he will contend for any radical pronouncement on this subject.

Tom Watson Not There.

An absentee of the Georgia delegation was Thos. E. Watson, twice Populist candidate for President, who now is recognized to control the balance of power among the Democrats in Georgia. When Mr. Watson was elected as delegate at large by the State Convention last month he promised "to go to Baltimore and lock horns with Bryan." He is reported to be ill at his home.

"Tom" Was a Little Late.

Thomas B. Felder, another delegate at large, did not come with the Georgia delegation, but arrived later. Several years ago Felder prosecuted some alleged dispensary fraud cases in South Carolina, recovering large sums of money for the State. It is said Felder's action in these cases started a feud between him and Governor Bleasde, who has repeatedly attempted to have Mr. Felder extradited on counter charges. When he learned of Felder's election as a delegate he announced that Felder would be arrested on long standing warrants if he passed through South Carolina with the Georgia delegation. Mr. Felder believed Bleasde would do it, and he came by way of Cincinnati.

A Birmingham Bantam.

When the Birmingham (Ala.) contingent, composed mostly of members of the Underwood Marching Club, arrived here they carried as a mascot a bantam rooster known as "Punch." Punch was the hero of the occasion when the delegation stopped at Washington to greet Mr. Underwood, whom they are booming for the Democratic Presidential nomination. The marching club members formed a ring and threw their hats into it. "Punch," madly excited, broke from his custodian, flew about, and came down on the pile of hats. Then he crowed till perfectly satisfied.

The District Conference of Anderson (Methodist) District will convene with the Walhalla church on Tuesday, July 23d. The body is composed of about 60 delegates. The district conferences rank next in importance to the Annual Conference.

The members of the Walhalla church are looking forward with pleasant anticipation to the gathering of the delegates for this meeting. It has been quite a number of years since a District Conference has been held here.

Robbed in Pullman Berth.

Washington, June 23.—P. H. Gadsden, of Charleston, reported to the police to-day that he had been robbed of $125 in cash and a gold watch valued at $125 while he was asleep in his berth on a Pullman between Philadelphia and Washington this morning. Mr. Gadsden says that he had left the money in his trouser's pocket and the watch in a vest pocket. His clothes were on the berth hook when he awoke, but the money and watch were gone.

ALTON B. PARKER, CHAIRMAN.

Vote Stood, for Parker 579; for Wm. J. Bryan, 510.

Baltimore, June 25.—A last desperate attempt to avert a bitter factional fight was made by the Bryan forces when the Democratic Convention took up the problem of selecting a temporary chairman. So sharp was the cleavage of the factions that Mr. Bryan himself became a candidate for the temporary chairmanship.

After Bryan had made a speech nominating Senator Kern, of Indiana, and attacking Alton B. Parker, Kern took the stand. He made a plea for harmony; asked Parker to join him in withdrawing from the contest for temporary chairman, and substituting any one of a list of several men. After waiting in vain for a reply from Parker, Kern himself withdrew and nominated Bryan.

Again Bryan took the platform. He accepted the nomination and the line-up for the final struggle was complete.

Mack Calls Convention to Order.

Chairman Mack dropped his gavel at 12.16 o'clock with the announcement: "The convention will be in order. The sergeant-at-arms will clear the aisles."

Confusion followed as the official endeavored to get the delegates and spectators into their seats. A moment after Chairman Mack began pounding for order Judge Parker, accompanied by Judge Morgan O'Brien, of New York, appeared, making his way up the wrong aisle in search of the New York delegation.

After the call Chairman Mack introduced Cardinal Gibbons, in his brilliant scarlet robes, for the invocation. The great audience rose and stood silently during the prayer. There was a remarkable demonstration as the cardinal concluded.

As the demonstration subsided Senator Kern, Bryan's candidate for temporary chairman, entered the hall. In a moment one of the galleries behind the platform started a cheer for Bryan. "Bryan! Bryan! Bryan!" they shouted and disorder broke loose again.

Mack pounded his gavel in vain for several minutes, but finally secured enough quiet to proceed.

Mr. Mack directed the announcement of temporary organization. Assistant Secretary Smith began to read:

"Temporary chairman, Alton B. Parker, of New York."

He was interrupted by a cheer. The band joined in with "Oh, You Beautiful Doli," the music drowning out the demonstration.

The secretary then proceeded with the announcement of other officers.

As the list was concluded Mr. Bryan stepped forward and said:

"Gentlemen of the Convention: I rise to place in nomination for temporary chairman of this convention the name of Hon. John W. Kern, of Indiana."

Mr. Kern acknowledged the honor sought to be conferred, but declined the nomination, in turn nominating Mr. Bryan.

Bryan Defeated.

Bryan lost his fight for progressive control of the Democratic National Convention to-day when he was defeated for temporary chairman of the convention by Alton B. Parker. The Nebraskan made an eloquent plea "for the cause he had represented for sixteen years," but it was unavailing.

The debate preceding the roll call threw the convention into wild disorder.

The vote on a roll call was: Parker, 579; Bryan, 506; O'Gorman, 4.
